EPISODE AT THE BATTLE

OF LEESBURG, VA.

Delivered at the Meeting of the U. S.

Association of the Graduates of the U. S.

Military Academy, at West Point, N. Y.

on the evening of June 11th, 1874, by

Cadet, Miss Hall, by P. T. TURNLEY, of Tennessee, a Graduate of 1846.

I recount you a tale;

It is not very long;

And was told to me as a boy, by one of the old soldiers.

In story or song,

For only the feeling might word it.

Twice the evening of battle;

All day the shots sped,

O'er the field which the foe was winning;

And yonder a hillock,

Ringed round with the dead,

Marked the spot of his fatal beginning.

A battery splintered,

Dejected o'er with smoke,

Frowned down on the pitiful scene,

And a soldier lay dying.

Where the boom of the cannon had been,

Its guns were all silent;

Not a man stood to tell,

The tale of the day that was lost;

But each soldier corpse

On the spot where he fell,

Told, they died, every man at his post.

One last gun shot loaded;

The foe that had called,

Half a score of brave souls to their God,

Was dashed in the sand;

Whose strong arms had pulled

Ever it sped the dire missile of blood.

And now from the reeking sword,

Blending and pale,

The captain mowed up his gun;

'Tis our last shot they hear;

I shall hear them our tale,

From the field that they dearly have won.

That sharp from the thicket,

A husky man sprang forth,

Dismounted, and called the "surrender!"

"This land, thou aggressor,

Is the land of my birth,

And I am its faithful defender."

"Your sword, dying man,

Quick, down on your knees,

From the place that you never would have Given;

A soldier strikes not

At the wounded like you,

They stood face to face,

And the gaze ever to eye,

Was a gaze of hate and defiance;

"Demand of the coward to yield!"

My reply,

And this trusty sword—my reliance.

"Each soldier that lies

On this gore covered soil,

Shall give me to my arm as I wield it;

And not till this spirit

Goes up to its God,

Shall living man say that I yield it."

"I fight for the right,

And my quarrel is just,

"Tis my country, when war is upon her,

The sword that I hold

Has never been rust

Nor shall it now suffer dishonor.

"But first let thy name

And thy place, yielding foe!

"Tis not quaking fear that demands it,

But 'twill strengthen my arm,

That my spirit shall know,

What he spurs this day as I leave it."

That proud foe's brow,

Great rolling down leave;

The grimmer with tears grew hallow,

For his eye's

Knew the eye of the brave,

And respects in his foe; a fellow:

"I come from the banks of the Hudson,

Brave man,

From a mother who never taught me hate,

And a tear glistened down

On the service-brown hand,

As it reached to his foe for a mate.

The following correspondence will fully explain itself.

A CARD.

The end of the month has come, and we hope all those who are in any way indebted to us will come forward and pay up. We are compelled to meet our monthly demands, as well as pay our current expenses, and we depend on those who owe us, to help us to do this by settling their accounts. This notice is meant for EVERY ONE who owes us a CENT, and we sincerely hope that all will take heed. To those whom we have indulged for "30 days" we would say that their time is out; and to others to whom we have extended credit for a longer or shorter time we could say that a little help from them would be gratefully appreciated; to ALL, we would say that we wish to collect up our accounts & expect them to come forward promptly.—W. T. & C. S. ALEXANDER.

FIRE.—Tuesday night the residence of J. K. Douglas Esqr. was burned to the ground. The fire was discovered about 1 o'clock at night and was supposed to have originated from a defective stove flue. Mr. Douglas succeeded in saving the more valuable part of his house furniture, although a great many articles of convenience and necessity were destroyed. Among other things he lost about forty bushels of wheat which was stored in the house. He lives near Weaver's Station. No Insurance.

ATTEMPTED RAPE.—We learn by rumor that Henry Woods, a burly negro well known in this community, attempted to commit a rape upon a white lady in the Northern portion of this county, whose name we did not learn. The negro, report says, has fled that portion of the country, as was no doubt wise for him to do.

The cattle are still dying about Jacksonville with the strange disease heretofore mentioned. They are apparently heaving up to within twenty-four or forty-eight hours before death. Some three or four inches have also died here from a singular disease.

POWELL & BERRY, of Baltimore, whose reputation as Founders and Machinists have become national within the past twenty-five years, appears elsewhere in our columns in an advertisement of their well-known and highly regarded "Lafayette Turbine Water Wheel," as well as in enumeration of various other lines of their manufacture. We invite for this firm, the favorable consideration of those of our readers who may be in need of anything in their line; their machinery, wherever used, best speaking for itself as regards quality, durability and capacity for their creators before purchasing elsewhere.

The attention of parties having wheat to grind is especially directed to the advertisement of W. Adams & Co. All will remember what excellent flour these mills used to turn out when located near or town. Now they are located near the depot and have the advantage of both water and steam power. They are turning out an excellent flour.

We direct attention to the Advertisement of John Hollingsworth, Adams, and H. E. Trimer, Admrs.

EVERYBODY Come out to the CLUB meeting TO-NIGHT.

Col. JIMMIE FARMER is speaking of coming to Jacksonville, soon, to remain several weeks. We predict for the COL. a nice time during his stay with us.

NEW FAMILY GROCERY.—We would say to all those who wish to purchase FAMILY GROCERIES to call on Mr. W. H. BLACK. Mr. BLACK has just received a fresh supply of family groceries from Baltimore, and offers them so cheap that anyone could hardly refuse buying. We can safely say that those who purchase of him will go away contented.

Jacksonville Flouring Mills.

These mills are now in full operation having been considerably improved—being driven by Steam and water and have ample power for the manufacture of the BEST FLOUR. The flour from these Mills need no recommendation, as it is well known in this community and surrounding country. The mill machinery is the same as run and owned formerly by George Adams & Co., and is known to have made the best FLOUR made in this country. We respectfully ask the public generally to give us a trial we are determined you shall be pleased. We promise to give you the BEST FLOUR that can be made. Persons having large lots of wheat to be ground will find it to their interest to come and see us.

Yours Respectfully,

W. ADAMS & Co.

Appointments will hereafter be made for Cross Plains, Oxford, Jacksonville, the Etowah out-fall and perhaps other points in the county.

Come one! come all! to the club-meeting to night.

The mornings are somewhat cool.

Just as we go to press the dispatches inform us that the persistent misrepresentation of our people at Washington has borne its fruit, and the President has ordered troops into Alabama. Of course they are sent here to influence the election, but if the white people of the State are only true to themselves, they will carry the election despite the overawing presence of Federal soldiers. The man who finances now is undermining the name of man.

Colored Mail Agent Killed.

Last Saturday evening, on the Alabama and Chattanooga Railroad, about three miles from York Station, a colored mail agent, named Thomas Ivey, was shot and killed by unknown men. The train was flagged down by a man on the track. As soon as the train was stopped, four shots were fired at the mail agent, who was standing on the door of the mail car. One shot took effect in the face, another in the heart, another in the side, the fourth missed him and struck the side of the door. He was killed instantly.

As soon as he was killed the men who fired the guns turned off in the darkness. They were not seen, though, as the train was stopped, and the men were on both sides of the railroad track. The corps was carried to Meridian, On Sunday morning it was brought to Coahoma Station, the Alabama Central Railroad on the train of which Captain McGinnis is Conductor.

The Meridian Mercury says that the deceased, "Thos. Ivey, had been riding about Livingston with his double-barreled gun, and saying a great many provoking things, as for instance, 'Show me the man who shot Ballinger, and I'll shoot his head off.' From what we have heard of his incendiary talk and acts, we conclude that he has foolishly and needlessly provoked his fate."—Sema Echo.

MOB.

An armed mob of negroes has assembled at the cross roads near the Rowe place about half way between this place and Forkland, Greene county, with the avowed purpose of raiding on the government bacon which is to be hauled to Forkland. The number of riotous blacks is variously estimated from 50 to 600, armed with guns, pistols, knives, &c. One cask of bacon was run through by the blacks, and the cask was broken. It is reported that C. S. Thompson has been dispatched to disperse the mob.

Demopolis News.

A party of workmen, chiefly negroes, paraded the streets of Washington City a few days ago, with a banner bearing the legend, "We will rather beg than work for a dollar and a half a day."

Whereupon Furness's Ballad Press makes these sensible remarks, which apply to other places besides Washington.

Those of them who were black, and the majority were that color, have the satisfaction of knowing that they have done more to defeat the civil rights bill than a dozen hundred Senators. They have shown courage and bravery that they are not fit for freedom.

Unswerving devotion to principle shines never so brightly as when a swerving policy marks the hour. The present is particularly a time when to try the political principle of man, the importance of firm abiding in our party cannot be too deeply felt. Feeling that on the success of the Democratic and Conservative party depend the restoration of civil rights to freemen, and the security of person and property, we feel a consideration of a single vote as to compromising our honor, losing faith will be held out in shape of various offices, but a man is well who who resists for a moment, honor and self-respect against the pitiful gold of office. Would it restore to the eye the proud light which shines out from an honest soul? Never. The course of the traitor, like the mark of Cain brands the brow unmistakably, and was to the man who accepts the shame and bequeaths it to his children.

The Cant of Impostors.

It is obvious that physical and constitutional vigor is the best defense against disease, that even the vendors of drastic purgatives advertise them as tonics, stomachics and invigorants, in the hope of enticing the confidence of the public in the devilizing and unwholesome potions. It is amusing to note how these impostors imitate and copy the language in which the medicinal properties of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are described. Although the effect of their rasping evacuants is to destroy the tone of the digestive organs and the bowels, and to rob the system of its vital strength, they are unscrupulously recommended to the weak and prostrate victims of disease as stimulants! It is this language (not a very successful one) it is true thanks to the mature common sense of the American people) was stigmatized as deserved by such mischievous hostetter's so-called "bitters" in the "Public Health" a standard. It is distinctly understood, is a stimulant. It is a purgative, and that basis is the vehicle through which its wonderful salutary principles are conveyed to the system. The tonics, alteratives and regulating ingredients of the Bitters would be comparatively inert if they were not so, carried to the localities where they are required by the stimulating agent. The fact which protests against the use of a pure alcoholic fluid, when employed as a means of giving full effect of medicinal extracts of the highest quality, is the cant of charlatanism. Every intelligent physician so characterizes it, and the sick who are gripped, convulsed and debilitated by the nauseous and disgusting nostrums of the parties who put it forth, soon find to their sorrow that it is a delusion and a snare. Hostetter's Bitters, the great sanitary stimulant of the age, is in the true sense of the words, a wholesome, vitalizing, renovating preparation.

By virtue of one F. F. issued from the circuit court of Calhoun county, Alabama, and to me directed, I will offer for sale before the court house door in the town of Jacksonville in said county, at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash, on Monday the 5th of October next, between the legal hours of sale, all the following described property, to-wit: One house and lot known as the old Corn Grove Lot, bound on the north by public road; running from Davis-ton to Oxford; on the east by the road leading to Allen Edmon's miller not known—levied upon as the property of Newton Ross, to satisfy said F. F. in my hands in favor of State of Alabama, against David Foster and said Newton Ross, this 2nd day of Sept. 1874.

C. P. READ, Sheriff of Calhoun County.

September 5, 1874.-5t.

TO BE REGRETTED.—In the Fifth and Sixth Congressional Districts, in this State, there is an opposing Democratic candidate, Col. Caldwell, the Democratic nominee in the Fifth, is opposed by Col. Sheffield, and Col. Hewitt, in the Sixth, is opposed by Major Sloss, who now represents the District. Should each of these opposing candidates win in the field, a Radical would probably be elected in one, or possibly both of them. In such a time as this, when so much is dependent upon the success of the Democratic party in Federal and State elections, there should be no independent candidates. The man who hazards the success of the party's success in such circumstances, is selfish, in other words, not to be trusted.—Greenboro Beacon.

Yours Truly, D. F. WEAVER.

The members of the colored Baptist Church gave a dinner and supper last Thursday, to help defray the expenses of a new church building that they have just erected. As usual they invited the white people to partake of the refreshments from a separate table prepared, and we learn that several gentlemen went, both from a spirit of curiosity to see the tables and from a desire to contribute something toward the erection of their house of worship. Everything went off quietly.

Every member of the Banner County Horse Company is urgently requested to attend the regular meeting on Friday night next, as business of the utmost importance to the Company will be considered.

The Weather has been pleasant for the past week.

Wild Cat.—Wednesday morning a son of Mr. Bonds, living in Dark Corner brought to town a wild cat that had been killed by Mr. Dick Bonds near his home on that morning. The animal was a shaggy looking customer and has doubtless disposed of many lambs, pigs, ducks, chickens, etc., in his time. He measured within a fraction of three feet from tip to tip, and 18 inches in height. It was turned over to Mr. Clark, who will skin and stuff it.

The attention of the Town Council is respectfully invited to the fact that no ordinance passed by that body is valid unless it is published in some newspaper in the town. If there was no newspaper here, the posting of the ordinances would answer the demand of the code. We mention this to save the town trouble in future, in event the validity of its ordinances are brought in question.

A sick mule of Mr. Wilkins was the attraction on the square for awhile Wednesday. Everybody of course knew just exactly what would cure him in fifteen minutes, and if he had given half the medicine prescribed for it, his mule would have been dead in just five minutes by the watch.

Quite an interesting revival meeting has been going on in the Baptist Church at this place the present week and we are glad to say that a great deal of interest is being manifested. Rev. J. D. Renfro, the pastor in charge, and Rev. Mr. Cloud, of Gadsden, have been preaching.

Mr. Black, who recently settled in Jacksonville has opened up an extensive stock of family Groceries in the stand formerly occupied by Messrs. Draper & Johnson near the American Hotel. Mr. Black is courteous and affable in his manner and will doubtless build up for himself a good trade.

PUGH & HUNT, MACHINISTS, BIRMINGHAM.—In another part of our paper will be found the business card of this well known house, whose manufactures are in use from Maine to Mexico and South America, and everywhere regarded as first-class in their design, material and workmanship. With facilities for manufacturing and shipping largely increased and improved from year to year, they are prepared to fill all orders promptly and will guarantee their patrons thoroughly reliable work. Those in need of anything in their line would do well to apply for their circular and prices.

Last Friday witnessed quite a dangerous runaway in town. Messrs. Hal Forney and Alf Dean were breaking a young colt of high mettle. The vigorous young animal bore so hard upon the bit that the muscles in the arms of Forney were drawn to the utmost tension and became as hardened and rigid as the muscles of a Venus. "Something had to give away. It was iron!" The bit broke and the blooded steed, finding himself unbridled, flew like the wind around the square, first with two men and a wagon behind, then with a wagon, then with half a wagon, then with a team of horses, where he was arrested in his mad and reckless career with some small pieces of harness still clinging to him. He was a recent purchase, and the man said he was a good place horse, but he didn't know about his other qualities.

P. S.—Since writing the above we learn that this noble steed has "landed in his checks!" The last seen of him Gidley was working him in rear of an ox wagon with a trace chain about his neck. He hauled him out for his skin.

St. Louis, September 8.—The Globe has a communication from Santa Court House, Colorado, which states that the bodies of five men were found August 13th near lake fork of Gunnison river, in San Luis Potosi. These bodies proved to be the remains of a body of miners who started last November from Southern Utah across the mountain to San Jose mines in Colorado and were reported last March by one of their companions named Parker, to have undergone terrible hardships in the mountains; and finally, becoming nearly crazy from hunger chose lots to see who would be shot to furnish food for the remainder. This story was published at the time in territorial and other papers. It now proves that Parker murdered the men by chopping their heads off with a hatchet, robbed them of money and other property, and then told the story of Cannibalism to hide the crime. He has been arrested, however, and is now in jail. The names of those murdered are R. Swann, from Missouri; Geo. Noon, from California; Shannon W. Bull, supposed to be from Ohio; Jos. Humphrey, supposed to be from Philadelphia; and Frank Milber, a German.

Washington, Sept. 8.

The Treasury Department is advised of the existence of yellow fever at the following points: New Orleans, Galveston, Pensacola, Darien, Ga., Key West, and Brunswick, Ga. Also, at Baltimore and New York at quarantine. In view of the prevalence of the disease at these ports, Secretary Bristow has issued a circular in which he says: "In the absence of uniformity in the regulations in quarantine upon the Atlantic and Gulf coasts, it is desired that the several officers specifically placed over the direction of the Treasury Department inform themselves fully as to the local health laws, and the regulations based thereon, and enforce at their respective ports and stations a strict compliance with such laws, and prompt assistance in the enforcement of the same when directed by competent authority, are hereby enjoined."

A telegram was received at the Department to-day from Commandant Moore, commanding Pensacola Navy-yard, announcing that one of the Surgeons at that post was down with yellow fever and others were sick and asking authority to employ physicians residing in Pensacola. Acting Secretary Reynolds directed that two Surgeons of the Navy be detailed immediately for duty at Pensacola.

New Haven, September 8.—The Wheel Company's buildings were burned. Loss $350,000. One hundred and fifty hands busted.

Egg Harbor, N. J., Sept. 8.—The fire in the pine woods is still raging, and has spread considerable since yesterday.

A CARD.

The end of the month has come, and we hope all those who are in any way indebted to us will come forward and pay up. We are compelled to meet our monthly demands, as well as pay our current expenses, and we depend on those who owe us, to help us to do this by settling their accounts. This notice is meant for EVERY ONE who owes us a CENT, and we sincerely hope that all will take heed. To those whom we have indulged for "30 days" we would say that their time is out; and to others to whom we have extended credit for a longer or shorter time we would say that a little help from them would be gratefully appreciated; to ALL we would say that we wish to collect up our accounts & expect them to come forward promptly.—W. T. & C. S. ALEXANDER.

THE GREAT CAUSE OF HUMAN MISERY.

Just Published in a Solid Envelope.

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment, and Radical Cure of Seminal Weakness, or Spermatocoe, induced by Self Abuse, Involuntary Emissions, Impotency, Nervous Debility, and Impairments to Marriage, generally. Contains a full and complete description of the disease, its symptoms, its progress, its cure, and its prevention. By ROBERT J. CULVER, M.D., author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self Abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

Send this Lecture free to a brother, to any address on receipt of six cts., or two postage stamps.

THE LAST TRY.

Over brown moors and wither'd leas
The angry winds were sweeping,
Over the grey northern sea
The cruel waves were leaping;
And you and I stood close together,
In the chilling gleam of the wintry weather,
As the lone, gaunt branches overhead,
Shook their lingering leaflets gold and red,
While in every falling word we said
Ming the faithful wail for the days that were dead.
For by the sad sea, 'neath the storm-beat trees,
Our last try we were keeping.
I scarce could hear the words you sobbed,
Amid your passionate weeping,
And the glow from my eager prayer was robbed
By the chill around us creeping;
From the silent paths, where in summer
weather,
Youth, joy, and music had met together,
From the cry of the sea-mews flitting past,
Over the wild white waves in the bitter blast,
From the breakers that crash'd on the hollow
sand,
From the sigh of the breeze o'er the dull,
damp land,
From sea and shore rose "No more, no more,"
As our last try we were keeping.
There was not a pale bud left, in sooth,
And the dry leaves round us heaping,
The bitter harvest of reckless youth,
Time's iron hand was reaping;
Our lips still said "Forever, forever,"
As the trembling fingers clung together—
But even then each soul heart knew
What fate and circumstance meant to do,
And the might of love would not be so,
As we turned apart from that long face,
And to wind and rain and the moaning main left the last try of our keeping.
—All The Year Round.

DR. B. W. WHIT. "ARTHUR BINGHAM, the reputed editor of the Montgomery Journal, state treasurer, and candidate on the negro ticket for re-election, swore before the Bitter's impeachment committee that he had published in his paper libels upon Judge DUBBED, knowing them to be false, to get even with the Judge. This advocate of negro social equality and purveyor is daily impudently striving to teach decent white people good morals, and their duty to their God and country."

A Queer Story.

A California paper tells a queer story about a couple of pious ladies who were traveling on a train there recently. They had with them a basket filled with nice little Bibles, and with these they were going about doing good and making money. While looking for customers they ran across a gentle looking fellow, who offered to give the ladies a little game, just to while away time and keep them quiet. He threw the cards, and then asked them to pick out the Jack, which he had previously shown them. They did so, once, twice, three times. Then he threw them again, and one of the innocents cried:—"There it is, you can't fool me, if you did throw 'em quick." "No, madame, you are mistaken," he replied, and, drawing out of his pocket a ten and two twenty dollar pieces, he said: "I'll bet you $50 you don't know which is Jack."

"Oh, we never bet," said one of them.
And then they stood and eyed these gold pieces and thought how little the possessor, apparently appreciated their worth. Watching for the favorable moment, the reckless young man said: "Well, I don't care, seeing it's you, I'll bet you this $50 against that basket of books—hallo, hang me, they're Bibles; but everything goes as it lays—you can't find the Jack." The bet was taken, but the ladies lost their wager, having failed to find the Jack. The winter marched though the train and distributed Bibles among the passengers. What became of the woman is not known to the passengers.

The Negro's Own Baby.

The Radical State Convention of Michigan has endorsed the Civil Rights Bill. Every Radical State Convention has thus far endorsed it. "The Alabama Convention tried to 'wire in and wire out,' but they put the negro in the platform and the whole State now sees him. They left entirely too much of him sticking out. For instance: White is one of his heels; Sheets is another; Spencer is his back; Bingham is his neck and shoulders; McKinstry is his body; Adam Felder is one of legs, and Saffold is the other. We will call Lewis his eyes, because there is some white about him. Geo. Turner is his flat nose, and dear, good old granny Rice aspires to the dignity of his perfume! Raper is the veritable negro himself. Yet with all this negro sticking out of it, they carry the thing before North Alabama a dimes and exclaim: Behold! how white it is! 'White!' indeed! It is the negro's own baby, and who ever knew a negro to have a white baby?"
—Montgomery Advertiser.

In all seriousness the people of Mont. om y would like to know what the negroes mean by their nightly drills in obscure places, about this city. Two hundred of them were drilling between 10 o'clock and daylight, in rear of the Capital just outside of the city limits, yesterday morning.—They are all provided with guns, and seem to relish the fun amazingly. This we get from those whose business it is to watch over the city after night.
—Montgomery Advertiser.

Said Young America to his father:—"Be you a Britisher?" "Yes my son, I was born in England." "Well, we whipped you," retorted the youngster.
—John T. Henderson, Esq., was nominated by the Democratic Convention, at Talladega, for Judge of the tenth Judicial Circuit.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINCA BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.
No Person can take these Bitters
according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.
Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi,
Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee,
Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, depend entirely on the state of the Liver,
the Liver being the seat of the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary.
There is no cathartic for the purpose
equal to Dr. J. WALKER'S VINCA BITTERS, as they will gently remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy function of the digestive organs.
Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINCA BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fortified.
Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Stomach, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eruptions of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Puffi-ness of the Liver, Induration of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better medicine than its merits than a lengthy advertisement.
Scrofula, or King's Evil, White
Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled
Neck, Gout, Rheumatism, Inflammation,
Indolent Abscesses, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, &c. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VIN-CA BITTERS is the great restorative power in the most obstinate and incurable cases.
For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remit-tent, and Intermittent Fevers, Indigestion of the Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.
Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in arts and trades, such as Painters, Type-setters, Gold-beaters and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINCA BITTERS occasionally.
For Skin Diseases, Eruptions,
Tetter, Salt Rheum, Itch, Scald Head,
Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-
worms, Scald-head, Scrofula, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally cured by use and carriage of these Bitters in a short time by the use of these Bitters.
Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine can vermifuge, no anthelmintic will free the system from worms like these Bitters.
For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Vinca Bitters decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.
Cleanse the Vitiated Blood
by the use of this inviolable Remedy through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Address of the State Executive Committee of the Democratic and Conservative Party of Alabama.

The delay in publishing the address of the State Executive Committee of the Democratic and Conservative Party has been caused, we learn, by the fact that those of the members of the Committee who were not at Blount Springs were consulted in reference to their concurrence in the address before it was published.

BLOUNT SPRINGS, AUG. 27, 1874.

29th People of Alabama.

We are about to commence a canvass of more vital importance to the welfare and prosperity of our beloved State than any which has occurred since the late war, and in this crisis of public affairs every citizen of this State owes it to himself, to his family, to his friends, to his neighbors, to his country, and to his God, to perform his whole duty. This is his plain duty, and it is a duty of the highest order. The political government of Alabama was created by the people for their good, and for the welfare of their posterity. It is a government administered by officers, selected by the people, and these officers are but the agents and servants of the people.

In selecting these governmental agents,

it is through the ballot-box that your power is declared, and your rights and liberties preserved. It is a privilege and a duty, and it is a duty of the highest order, and it is a duty of the highest order, and it is a duty of the

highest order, and it is a duty of the

highest order, and it is a duty of the

To those whom we have indulged for "30 days" we would say that their time is out; and to others to whom we have extended credit for a longer or shorter time we could say that a little help from them would be gratefully appreciated; to all, we would say that we wish to collect up our accounts & expect them to come forward promptly.—W. T. & C. S. ALEXANDER.

Jacksonville Flouring Mills.

These mills are now in full operation having been considerably improved—being driven by Steam and water and have ample power for the manufacture of the BEST FLOUR. The flour from these Mills need no recommendation, as it is well known in this community and surrounding country. The mill machinery is the same as run and owned formerly by George Adams & Co., and is known to have made the best FLOUR made in this country. We respectfully ask the public generally to give us a trial we are determined you shall be pleased. We promise to give you the BEST yield of FLOUR that can be made. Persons having large lots of wheat to be ground will find it to their interest to come and see us.

Yours Respectfully, W. ADAMS & Co.

NOTICE.

WHILE in Jacksonville I lost my side-pocket Memorandum book—Should be glad to recover it, as it has my half fare railroad certificate and some items in it of some value to me.

FOR RENT.

A house in Jacksonville, known as the Linder-Stevenson property. There are four good rooms in the house in addition to closets and a four room kitchen. A large garden is attached to the premises. This property will be rented at $10 PER MONTH. Apply to H. E. Stevenson or at this office.

J. T. Martin and John M. Caldwell Esq., and Hon. T. A. Walker will address the citizens at Pecks Hill on the 29th Sept. Ladies invited.

We direct attention to the advertisement of Mr. Archer in another column. It will be observed that he offers his services as surveyor to any parties having any work of that sort that they may want done. He is thoroughly competent to perform the duties of Surveying and his prices strike us as very moderate indeed. Read his advertisement.

We take great pleasure in calling attention to the advertisement of Mrs. Fannie L. Bellamy in another column. Mrs. Bellamy is well known to our community as a talented and accomplished lady, as well as an experienced teacher. We hope she will meet that encouragement her ability and accomplishments so justly merit. Read her advertisement.

The Bar-room Remedy for all ailments is Run Bitters, surcharged with Food Oil, a deadly element, rendered more active by the pungent astringents with which it is combined. If your stomach is weak and liver or bowels disordered, strengthen & regulate them with VINEGAR BITTERS, a purely VEGETABLE ALTERNATIVE and APERIENT, free from alcohol capable of infusing new vitality into your exhausted system.

St. Louis, Sept. 15.

A Mass Meeting was held to night to sympathize with the people of Louisiana in their efforts to rid themselves of oppression. It was largely attended. Gen. William Shields presided, and a large number of prominent citizens of both political parties were elected Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

Washington, Sept. 15. There will be a cabinet meeting at 3 o'clock over Louisiana matters. Nothing definite with regard to the policy can be known, because it is not formed. The general feeling seems to be that the Kellogg sponge is in the air.

Washington, Sept. 16. The result of the cabinet meeting this afternoon, was an agreement that the following dispatch be sent immediately by the Adjutant General of the army, to Gen. Emory, commanding the Federal forces in Louisiana:

WAR DEPARTMENT.

Washington, Sept. 16.

Under no circumstances recognize the insurgent Government of Louisiana. Within five days from the date of the proclamation to the insurgents, such action will be taken as emergency may require.

By order of the President.

(Signed) L. TOWNSEND, Adj. Gen.

The Louisiana revolution has staggered the Administration. They will do nothing within five days. There can be no doubt that their present intention is to restore Kellogg. It is said that Grant is very angry. The time of the Northern papers is passing. Many of the most able Republican papers are opposing it. Kellogg has exercised the divine and conceded right of revolution.

Montgomery Advertiser.

Cheering Signs.

Gov. PALMER, of Illinois, has "come out from among the foul party" and joined the Democrats, and Gov. CURTIN, of Pennsylvania, has done the same thing. Concerning the latter gentleman the Boston Post says:

"The accession of Gov. Curtin to the Democratic ranks will be a notable event, in itself, so well known is he as a man of ability and a politician of distinguished honesty among the graceless crowd who own Pennsylvania by right of purchase; but as indicating the tendency of the better class of Republicans toward the Democratic party, it has a significance that cannot be measured by any personal influence which he brings with him to his new associations."

The triumph of the democrats in the city of Wilmington, Del., which has since negro suffrage was enacted, been a republican stronghold, is accepted as a pretty fair indication that the democrats will sweep the State in November next, and that Hon. T. T. BAYARD, will be re-elected to the United States Senate. There will also be a gain of a member of Congress.

Information has been received from Florida to the effect that the divisions of the Republicans in that State will probably lead to the election of one if not two, Democratic members of Congress, and a Legislature which will send a Democrat to the United States Senate, instead of GILBERT, the Radical carpet-bagger, who now fills the place.

The Democratic gains in Vermont appear yet more notable as the result is figured out. A correspondent of the Boston Post, writing from Montpelier, Vt., sums up some of the more significant changes among the people. The capital of the State gives a Democratic majority for the first time since its present boundaries were designated in 1848. In the House the Democrats will have at least fifty-six members against twenty-two in the last Legislature, and in addition to the strictly party strength the correspondent mentions at least fifty so-called Republicans elected to the House who are more in sympathy with the Democrats than with the administration party.

Wyoming doubles its last Democratic majority and Colorado also goes Democratic.

Abner J. H. Borders, Sam'l K. Borders, S. G. Jenkins, Executors of the last will of John Borders, dec'd.

Eliza M. Ponder, in Chancery, Malinda A. Bush, at Jacksonville, Cal. et al. vs. John Borders, et al. In this cause it is made to appear by affidavit of William H. Foreney, one of the Solicitors for the Plaintiffs, that the said Defendants, Malinda A. Bush, Thomas Brooks, Della Dupree, Wayne Dupree, Thomas Bush, Mollie Bush, are non-residents, and over the age of twenty-one years, and reside in the County of Noxubee in the State of Mississippi, Post Office supposed to be Brooksville in said State. Also, that the same Defendants, Nannie Bush and Abner Bush are non-residents, and are minors over the age of fourteen, and under twenty-one years, and reside in the State of Mississippi, County of Noxubee, Post Office supposed to be Brooksville in said State.

It is therefore ordered by the Register, that publication be made in the Jacksonville Republican, a Newspaper published in the Town of Jacksonville, Calhoun County, Alabama, for four consecutive weeks, requiring them and Malinda A. Bush, Thomas Brooks, Della Dupree, Wayne Dupree, Thomas Bush, Mollie Bush, Nannie Bush and Abner Bush, to appear and answer or demur to the Bill of Complaint in this cause by Monday the 16th day of November, 1874, or in thirty days thereafter a Decree pro confesso may be taken against them.

Done at office this 15th day of September, 1874.

The Cant of Impostors.

It is obvious that physical and constitutional vigor is the best defense against disease, that even the vendors of Bitter purgatives advertise them as tonics, stomachics and invigorants, in the hope of enlisting the confidence of the public in the devaluing and antipathetic positions. It is amusing to note how these impostors imitate and copy the language in which the radical purgatives of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are described. Although the effect of their rasping exponents is to destroy the tone of the digestive organs and the bowels, and to rob the system of its vital strength, they are unscrupulously recommended to the weak and prostrate victims of disease as stimulants! It is time this humbug (not a very successful one) is true thanks to the virtuous common sense of the American people) was stigmatized as it deserves such mischievous falsehoods should be exposed pro bono publico. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, he distinctly understood, is a stimulant. It has a spirituous base and that base is the vehicle which carries its wonderful salutary principles through every part of the system. The tonic, attractive and regulating ingredients of the Bitters would be comparatively inert if they were not so to speak, carried to the localities where they are required by the stimulating agent. The cant which protests against the use of a pure alcoholic fluid, when employed as a means of giving full effect of medicinal extracts of the highest quality, is the cant of charlatanry. Every intelligent physician so characterizes it, and the sick who are gripped, convulsed and debilitated by the nauseous and disgusting nostrums of the parties who put forth such cant and snare. Hostetter's Bitters, the great sanitary stimulant of the age, is in the true sense of the words, a wholesome, vitalizing, renovating preparation.

THE SABBATH BELLS.

The old man sits in his easy chair,

And his ear has caught the ringing

Of many a church bell far and near,

And his head sinks low on the aged breast.

White his thoughts far back are reaching

To the Sabbath morn of his boyish days,

And a mother's sacred teaching

A few years later, and to the bells

A warrior strain were giving.

And heavenward rose the marriage vows

Which his manhood's joy were sending,

But the old man's eyes are dimming now;

As memory hails before him

The sad, and picture of later years,

When the bells were tolling for loved ones

Gone!

For the wife, for the sons and daughters,

Who, one by one, from his home went out,

And down into death's dark waters.

But the aged heart has still its joys,

Which his old life still blesses.

And his eyes grow bright and his pulse warm

Neath a grandchild's sweet caresses.

But the old man wakes from his reverie,

And his dear old face is smiling,

While the child with her serious eyes reads on

The abtish hours beguiling.

Ah! when I once more ye will ring for him,

When the heavenly hand shall sever

The cord of life, and his freed soul flies

To dwell with his own forever.

A Very Serious "Joke."

CALVIN THOMAS is one of the Radical leaders of Coosa county. Not long ago a consignment of government rations was received at Rockford, ostensibly for the relief of those who suffered from the "overflow" last spring. Very naturally those who desire to avail themselves of the benefits of the bounty, inquired of the Radical leaders the terms upon which it would be issued. In answer to this inquiry, Mr. Thomas, who was then in charge of the rations, replied that they would be issued to those who were able to furnish a receipt from the county clerk, signed by the county clerk, and that the

The Circle of Fire.

The pitch of desperation to which the oppression and misgovernment of the people of Louisiana have brought the people of Louisiana is illustrated by the fact that in New Orleans, which the Old Rossum, the Beau-The Story of a Popular Old Song.

From the Atlanta Herald.

Noting in the columns of the Sun-Enterprise, a few days ago, an article from Major Calhoun, in which allusion is made to Col. W. H. Sparks, of New Orleans, now in this city, as the author of this well known and popular old song, I called attention to it. The following letter is in reply to my inquiry. Col. Sparks is, perhaps, as well known to the South than any other man of the old regime of aristocracy and wealth, for which the great Southwest became so famous anterior to the war. He is the author of a highly interesting book entitled "Memories of Fifty Years."

The Colonel is now over seventy-five years of age; but still retains his health, constitutional vigor, and great moral strength to a remarkable degree. He numbered as his personal associates and companions of the long ago such personages as Daniel Webster, Calhoun, Gen. Jackson, John Bell, Sill, and most of the statesmen of note who flourished in those times. In conversational powers the Colonel is unsurpassed, and his familiarity and acquaintance with all the prominent men and public incidents of the half century back made his society really charming. He, together with his excellent and talented lady, have been spending the summer at the Kimball House, and the two have been the centre of great attraction for the number of intelligent guests who daily throng its parlors. But I give you Col. Sparks' own words, together with the original "Rossum, the Beau."

ATLANTA, GA., Aug. 21, 1874.

My DEAR SIR—I am obliged to you for the little paragraph from the Sun-Enterprise referring to me in the authorship of this song, once so popular throughout the country.

It is very true, I wrote the lines I send you, and they are the first that were ever sung to the air which became famous.

I will give you a brief history of the writing, and of the man who inspired them. When I first went to the West, in 1826, I was some time in selecting a domicile. Why it is not necessary for me to state, as the reason and cause for delay will form a theme for a chapter in the second volume of the "Memories of Fifty Years."

Finally I located in Mississippi and commenced the practice of law. It was in the midst of the noblest race of people I have ever known. Amongst these were two equally remarkable but very unlike. One was a schoolmaster who was quite old, and who had been teaching in that neighborhood over forty years. His name was James Rossum. He was peculiar in his habits. On Monday morning, neatly dressed and cleanly shaven, he went to his duties in the old school house, where two-thirds of his life had been spent, and assiduously devoted himself to the duties of his vocation until Friday evening. On the morning of Saturday he arrayed himself in his best, and devoted the day in visiting the ladies of the neighborhood. He was a welcome guest at every house. This habit had continued so long that he had acquired the sobriquet of "Rossum, the Beau." The other name was Cox, who was a rollicking good fellow, and the best friend I ever knew. He was in song what Rossum was in oratory, and they were long companions. Both died young. Cox was frequently at my office, and upon one occasion while he was there Rossum walked by the door and his face was apparent in his walk. Cox looked at him, and after a pause turned to me and remarked quite a feeling tone, which he could assume at pleasure and his eloquence was infernal. "Poor old Rossum! some of these sunny mornings he will be found dead, when he shall have a noble funeral, and all the ladies will honor it with being present. I know."

Soon after he left the office, and being in the humor I seized the ideas and wrote the following doggerel lines. Soon after Cox returned and I handed them to him. He got up, and walked and hummed different airs, until he fell upon the old Methodist hymn tune, in which they have ever since been sung.

I have always considered Cox more entitled to the authorship of the song than myself.

Hundreds of lines have been written to the city, by as many persons, and almost as many have claimed the authorship of the lines, but this is of no moment. I claim no merit for my lines, but everything for Cox's singing them. I have seen him draw tears from the eyes of the old and young, with the feeling he threw into the song:

Now, soon on some soft, sunny morning,
The first thing my neighbors shall know,
Their cars shall be met with the warning—
Come buy old Rossum, the Beau.

My friends then so neatly shall dress me
In linen as white as the snow—
And in my new coffin shall press me,
And whisper: Poor Rossum, the Beau.

And when I'm to be buried, I reckon,
The ladies will all like to go,
Let them on at the foot of my coffin,
And follow old Rossum, the Beau.

Then take you a dozen good fellows,
And let them all stagger and go;
And dig a deep hole in the meadow,
And in it toss Rossum, the Beau.

Then shape out a couple of cornucopias,
Place one at the head and the toe;
And do not fail to scratch on it—
Here lies old Rossum, the Beau.

Then take you these dozen good fellows,
And stand them all round in a row,
And drink out a big-bellied bottle,
Farwell to old Rossum, the Beau.

W. H. SPARKS.

The following communication fully explains itself: "Enquirer, Sept. 4.—To the Chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of Barbour county, Alabama: My convictions of right and duty have me to separate myself from the Republican party. I no longer desire to be the Republican candidate for Sheriff, and while I am still thankful to the party for the confidence reposed in me, I hereby tender to the committee, through you, this my resignation, both as candidate for Sheriff and as a member of the Executive Committee. Very respectfully,
A. J. LOCKE.

DEMOCRATS ought to know that "independent candidates" are humbugs. If they are selfish enough to jeopardize the harmony of the party, they are also mean enough to make concessions to the Radicals—for in the latter lies their only hope of success.—Savannah News.
